MEDICAL AND DENTAL VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

NAMB (North American Mission Board) mobile clinics are coming to Meridian in February, 2020 and are asking dentists, dental assistants, nurses and doctors to donate 4 hours of their time to share the Gospel.

The North American Mission Board has purchased two mobile clinics -- one for dental services, the other for general medical needs -- that will be used as part of its new Send Relief compassion ministry. The clinics are fitted with state-of-the-art equipment and can be utilized by medical and dental professionals as part of outreach and service events for under-served communities. The units will be part of NAMB's ongoing Send Relief ministry and will also be available to churches, associations, state conventions and other Southern Baptist entities that want to use them as part of their own ministry events.

If you are interested in volunteering in February when the clinics are in Meridian or knowing more about this ministry, contact John Maxey at the Lauderdale Baptist Association (601.483.1419).

A NEW YEAR OF CHILDREN'S MISSIONS begins THIS Wednesday, August 14 6:30 p.m.
