Welcome Scott and Starr Hummel Sunday, January 19

We welcome Scott Hummel to our pulpit this Sunday, January 19th and congratulate him for being named as the 29th President of Tusculum University. Tusculum is the first higher education institution in Tennessee, the 28th oldest in the country and the oldest coeducational institution affiliated with the Presbyterian Church. The private university has more than 1,700 students on the main campus in Greeneville, at locations in Knoxville and Morristown and in online programs. Dr. Scott Hummel will join the Tusculum family Monday, February 17.

First Baptist Church joins William Carey College in wishing you well as God leads you in your new place of service. We are grateful for the time you spent with us.

Join us as we introduce the next step in learning to make disciples...
