

CLOTHED

WEEK 3: PROVISION- MATTHEW 6:25-34

“Worry never robs tomorrow of its possible sorrow; it only saps today of its potential joy.”

-Leo Buscaglia

What you seek will shape how you see.

We have come to look to our comforts for something they cannot provide: control.

We can have anxiety about anything, or we can give thanks to God in everything.

Paul's greatest concentration of words like joy, thanks, rejoicing, etc. are contained in a letter he wrote from prison.

We can trust whatever God provides on the basis of what He has not withheld: Jesus.