For over 50 years, First Baptist Church Meridian has enjoyed a strong partnership with WTOK-TV, bringing our Sunday worship services into homes across our community. In just the short time I've been pastor of this historic church, I've encountered numerous people who recognize me because of our local television ministry. Our services are not only broadcast into homes, but I've met many who have been blessed by our TV ministry while recovering in one of our local hospitals. I'm sure we all have stories of how someone has made a connection to our church through this wonderful ministry. However, due to recent programming decisions, WTOK will preempt our live broadcast for two of the four Sundays in February. One of those has already happened (February 2) and the other will take place on February 16th, 2025. While we are grateful for the many years of consistent coverage, we also recognize that media is evolving, and these changes present an opportunity for us to evaluate how we share our services with our church family and beyond.

Currently, the only other way to watch our service is through our Facebook page, @FBCMeridian, but we understand that not everyone has access to Facebook. That's why we are actively working to enhance our media presence. This includes developing an updated website, which we plan to launch before mid-March, as well as a new YouTube channel to provide additional ways for you to stay connected to our worship services. We appreciate your patience and prayers as we navigate these changes, and we remain committed to ensuring that the message of Christ continues to reach as many people as possible. Stay tuned for more details in the coming weeks!
